

Wedding Video Music Selections

Selecting the music for your wedding video is as important as selecting the music for your actual day. This can be a difficult task so we've put this list together to help give you ideas.

These are songs which have been chosen by our wedding couples for their wedding videos. You might like a particular artist but prefer a different song, or you might like the song but prefer a version performed by a different artist. (If we know of an alternative artist, we've listed this for you.)

We recommend choosing songs with varying tempos to use in different sections of your video.
